

ANNOUNCEMENT

Indian visa regulations do not permit a foreigner holding a tourist visa to re-enter India within two months of his last departure from India. In other words, there has to be a gap of at least 2 months for a visitor holding Tourist Visa to re-enter India.

All concerned are once again requested to note the above requirement to avoid any embarrassment of entry refusal by Immigration authorities in India.

By Order

High Commission of India
Abuja, Nigeria.